

Looking for support to find work?

Be part of that

'I got the job' moment

GETTING YOU SET UP

Workskil Australia's Disability Employment Services provides specialised support to help people find and keep a job.

- You will receive career counselling to discuss how to get the best results for you.
- We can link you to a wide variety of jobs with employers who understand the benefits of a diverse workplace.
- Your Employment Coach can help you with the job application process every step of the way, including tailoring your resume and practicing interview skills.
- We can arrange further education, training, apprenticeships and work experience.
- We can directly approach organisations that may be of interest to you to enquire about specific roles on your behalf.
- We will provide assistance if you need special equipment or workplace modifications to help you start and keep work.

Feel comfortable

We are looking forward to you getting a job! If it's needed and where appropriate, we can provide:

TRAINING FOR YOUR NEW TEAM

We can facilitate information or training for your employer and co-workers so you are supported at work. For example, we can arrange mental health awareness training or disability confidence sessions.

WORKPLACE MODIFICATIONS

If you require any changes to work practices, facilities, access to specific aids or equipment that will allow you to do your job effectively and comfortably, we can help.

STRATEGIES TO MANAGE

Together, we can create strategies for you to manage your transition to work.

TRAINING, TOOLS AND WORK CLOTHING

We may also be able to support you with funding for tools, uniforms or equipment, and work related licences or clearances.

SUPPORT FOR YOU AND YOUR EMPLOYER

As you settle into your new role, we will continue to support you and your new employer through our Post Placement Support program.

PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

Around the six month mark, we'll work together with you and your employer to determine if you need future support, and make a plan from there.

Are you currently working but worried that your work performance is being impacted by your health condition, injury or disability?

We can support you to maintain your employment through the Australian Government funded Work Assist program.
